CENTRAL JAVA - INDONESIA

Company Profile

Description	: RAHAYU RATTAN is a manufacturer and exporter of natural rattan coffins, we are based in Surakarta, Central Java, Indonesia. Our products use only the highest quality natural materials which are made by the most skilled and best local craftsmen, who have many years of experiences in making natural rattan furniture and handicrafts, and all our products are all hand made under the high standard quality control of our company. The materials we use in our product are natural Rattan, which is a naturally growing vine like species of palm tree, which is combined with other natural materials such as natural fabricated ropes which are made from 'rami' and bamboo. The bamboo is used to make 'nails' to construct and keep give the frame its shape and to keep it together. Therefore metal nails are not needed nor used in our products, also there are no wooden materials used in our products.
