WEST JAVA - INDONESIA

Company Profile

Description	: This business started as a small initiative by Haji Badawi and Hajjah Rupiah in 1960. They established Surabreja, inspired by the philosophy behind its name—"sura" meaning water and "braja" meaning fire. The combination of these two essential elements motivated them to develop a business in soy sauce and chili sauce production. Through years of hard work and collaboration with business partners, Surabreja has remained strong and continues to grow. By preserving traditional recipes, maintaining good old traditions, and incorporating modern innovations, we have continuously improved and, with Allah's blessing, expanded. In the early days, sales and marketing were done using bicycles, but now, we use four-wheeled or larger vehicles to distribute our products across the country.
