Company Profile

Description	: PT Coco Source Indonesia is an Indonesian company specializing in the sourcing, processing, and supply of coconut-based products for domestic and international markets. We focus on delivering reliable, consistent, and export-ready products derived from high-quality Indonesian coconut resources. Our product range includes cocopeat, Low EC Cocopeat Blocks, coco coir-based growing media, and other coconut coir products for horticulture, agriculture, nursery, greenhouse, and related applications. We work with selected suppliers and production partners to maintain product quality, consistency, and supply reliability. Our products can be customized according to buyer requirements, including specifications, packaging, labeling, and private-label solutions. With Indonesia's abundant coconut resources and our commitment to professional service, PT Coco Source Indonesia aims to build long-term partnerships with importers, distributors, wholesalers, growers, and agricultural businesses worldwide.
