WEST JAVA - INDONESIA

Company Profile

Description	: PT Rendang Uni Tutie has been producing Rendang since November 2015. The Beef Rendang was known as the most delicious authentic Indonesian food. To get the original taste of Rendang, we use local raw materials and selected export-quality spices. Our production process uses Good Manufacturing Practices standards with retort technology, and the product has a shelf life of 24 months at room temperature. Our installed capacity is 8 Tons of Rendang condiment per month, and we can immediately increase our production capacity according to buyers' requirements. UniTutie's product manufacturing from upstream to downstream complies with HACCP and Halal food certification and has registered under the Indonesian Food Authority and the United States Food & Drug Authority.
