Company Profile

Description	: Founded in 2022, Pilar Ekspor Indonesia company is nestled in the enchanting heart of Lombok Island, Indonesia, a location that exudes natural beauty and cultural richness. Through our journey, we have fostered dynamic partnerships with more than 200 highly skilled local artisans, whose craftsmanship adds an invaluable touch to our creations. Our company stands as an export-oriented enterprise. We bring nature into everyone's home while promoting and elevating the presence of Lombok's rattan-woven handmade products on the global market, and create international trade that is fair and sustainable. Collaborating closely with local artisans grants us a deep understanding of all our products. We ensure meticulous and exquisite craftsmanship, before dispatching them directly to your doorstep.
